REMARKS:

25X1

1. On 1 August 1950 the Drewitz (O 52/A 68) airfield was occupied by 52 twin-engine planes. Five jet fighters with swept-back wings were parked in front of the hangar. Residents of Drewitz said that jet fighters were at the field. * No flights were made.

3. [redacted] Comment. [redacted] the field is still occupied by a bomber regiment. The presence of jet planes is mentioned for the first time. The accuracy of the information is doubted since there is no concrete runway at the field and jet planes have not been seen on fields without a solid runway.
